Lenten Meditations

by

L. M. Zimmerman, D. D.

LENT, 1919

DEAR PARISHIONER:

THE past twelve months have been testing times for many who have been called before God to render an account for the deeds done in the body.

What if you had thus been summoned at God's bar for judgement? Would you have been ready? Would you have been glad that you lived as you did? Would you have been satisfied with yonr past efforts? Would you have been able to show God that you lived up to your opportunities and responsibilities? Would you have been able to show a record well kept of Sabbaths spent with God in religious worship? Would your Bible have been a witness for you as regards the manner in which you studied it?

Would the family altar have been another testimony in your favor as evidenced by your frequency there in prayer?

Would your fellowmen have been able to rise up and call you blessed because of your many words of love and deeds of kindness shown them during your life time?

Did you serve your God as well as your country?

Would you have been glad five minutes after your death that you lived as you did?

Could you have looked your Master in the face and said: "Lord, I served you well?"

If not, then think on these things and amend your ways.

Remember, that within the next twelve months you may be called before God at judgement to give an account of your stewardship.

This is your day of grace. Beware, lest you sin away that day and when too late you seek in vain for admission to the Great Marriage Supper of the Lamb.

Make this Lenten season, therefore, your opportunity for redeeming the time and for setting your spiritual house in order!

Bend every energy of your spiritual nature to lift the soul farther from things earthly, to experiences richer and nobler, purer and holier. By penitence and self-denial, by self-abnegation and consecration dedicate yourself unto God a living sacrifice, which is your reasonable service.

By self-examination and by prayer, ascertain your true relation toward God and your fellowmen, and bring yourself in conformity to the will of God.

If you thus live with a conscience void of offense toward God and your fellowmen, during this Lenten season and during all your days, then a glorious message will await you not only on Easter day, but also at the Judgement day when God will say to you "well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of the Lord."

WHY GO TO CHURCH?

We frequently hear people say, "You do not have to go to Church to be good," or "I am just as good as those who go to Church."

As well teach your child to say, "I do not have to go to school to be educated," or "I am just as educated as those who go to school."

You go to church first of all to worship God; and secondly to improve your own spiritual life that you may the better be equipped to go out into the world and help others to live happier and better lives.

When men and women come down to the hour of death, they never argue in favor of worldliness, but at such times they are happy if they have faithfully served God and their fellowmen.

How can men and women expect in the future to be admitted into the church triumphant, if now they ignore the church militant? Read the 28th chapter of Deuteronomy, and see what God has in store for those who serve, and also for those who do not serve Him.

Live therefore as you will wish you had after you shall have been five minutes in eternity. Eternity, where will you spend yours? "Chose ye this day when ye will serve."

1923 Merry Christmas and Happy New Year 1924

Christmas is the time for giving,
For 'twas then God gave His Son;
It was love that prompted God's gift,
Pardon, Peace, to every one.

Thus in love, dear ones I'm sending Greetings to you far and near;
Praying that God may enrich you
One and all the coming year.

May you have health and God's blessing,
May you love and serve mankind;
May you do each day a kindness,
Then you'll have a peaceful mind.

So be yours a Merry Christmas
And a Happy Glad New Year,
Is the wish of your own Pastor,
Who holds you in dear revere.

A Prayer after Holy Communion

"Do this in remembrance of Me"

I THANK Thee, oh Merciful God for the spiritual food of this most Holy Sacrament. Help me to faithfully keep the solemn vows which I have this day renewed at the altar. May I ever bear about me the marks of a Crucified Saviour, with a conscience void of offence toward God and my fellowman. Amen.

L. M. Zimmerman, D. D., Pastor

"There remaineth, therefore a rest to the people of God."—Heb. iv : 9.

Prayer on Entering Church

O Lord, take Thou possession of my mind and heart that I may attentively and prayerfully hear and retain Thy preached Word.

Bless him who shall speak to us, and may this hour's service be acceptable to Thee and profitable to our soul's, for Christ's sake. Amen.

L. M. Zimmerman, D. D., Pastor

THE SOLEMN VOW

LUTHERAN CATECHUMENS

ON THE

DAY OF THEIR CONFIRMATION.

FOR PERPETUAL REMEMBRANCE.

1. Do you this day, in the presence of God and of this Christian congregation, renew and confirm the solemn covenant which at your Baptism you made with the Triune God?

Answer: We do.

2. Do you, then, renounce the devil, and all his works, and all his ways?

Answer: We do.

3. Do you believe in God the Father?

Answer: Yes, we believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

4. Do you believe in God the Son?

Answer: Yes, we believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; Born of the Virgin Mary; Suffered under Pontius Pilate; Was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; The third day He rose again form the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

5. Do you believe in God the Holy Ghost?

Answer: Yes, we believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Christian Church, the communion of saints; The forgiveness of sins; The resurrection of the body; And the life everlasting.

[6. Do you desire to be members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church?

Answer: We do.]

7. Do you hold all the books of the Bible to be the inspired Word of God, and the doctrine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, drawn from the Bible, as you have learned to know it from Luther's Small Catechism, to be the true and correct one?

Answer: We do.

8. Do you also, as members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, intend to continue steadfast in the confession of this Church, and suffer all, even death, rather than fall away from it?

Answer: We do so intend, with the help of God.

9. Finally, do you intend faithfully to conform all your life to the rule of the divine Word, to walk as it becometh the Gospel of Christ, and in faith, word, and deed to remain true to the Triune God, even unto death?

Answer: We do so intend, by the grace of God.

1 Thine forever! God of love,
Hear us from Thy throne above!
Thine forever may we be,
Here and in eternity!

2 Thine forever! Oh, how blest
They who find in Thee their rest!
Savior, Guardian, heavenly Friend,
Oh, defend us to the end!

3 Thine forever! Savior, keep
These Thy frail and trembling sheep;
Safe alone beneath Thy care,
Let us all Thy goodness share!

4 Thine forever! Thou, our Guide,
All our wants by Thee supplied,
All our sins by Thee forgiven, —
Lead us, Lord, from earth to heaven!

MOTHER, DEAR MOTHER

WHO suffered ere your birth?
Mother, dear mother.
Who suffered at your birth?
Mother, dear mother.
Yes, she's the angel dear
Whose smile hides oft the tear,
Whose face brings us good cheer,
Mother, dear mother.

Who first taught you to walk?
Mother, dear mother.
Who first taught you to talk?
Mother, dear mother.
God bless this dear sweet soul
Who doth our fears console,
Who plays life's dearest role,
Mother, dear mother.

Who'll toil and sacrifice?
Mother, dear mother.
Who'll help and sympathize?
Mother, dear mother.
Others' love may grow cold
And give dross for pure gold.
Not so with one we know,
Mother, dear mother.

Who loves until the last?
Mother, dear mother.
Who clings 'till storms are past?
Mother, dear mother.
Others may mock and frown
And with harsh words crush down,
But one comes with a crown,
Mother, dear mother.

HEART-HUNGER

It is pitiful to think of the bread-lines and the many who at nights go to bed hungry for food, and especially so in a land of plenty.

But there are other kinds of hunger—a heart-hunger for love—a hunger for appreciation. "Life is more than meat and the body than raiment," even though there be a magnificent palace with all its adornments.

Love may be romantic, but it does not thrive long on outward beauty whether in the individual or in material possessions. The heart craves love, good breeding, good character, good personality, good common sense, all of which are essential ingredients for a happy home, be it ever so palatial or humble.

The nagging temper, the harsh word, the silent grouch, are often the poisoned arrows which kill all love that once lived in the heart, leaving a luxurious environment no more livable than a prison cell. On the other hand, a home may be humble and poorly furnished—just a small flat—and yet be the very hearthstone of the Eternal God, an Eden spot of earth, because in that abode are love and geniality.

That which is true of the home is also true in the business world.

Men and women as employees may receive decent living wages, but more than that is due them. If they are making good and are working for the interest of their employer, then they deserve words of praise, gracious smiles of encouragement, a spirit of grace and harmony such as will shed joy and radiate happiness.

Many workmen are indeed hungry for a bit of worthy and deserving praise, cheer and encouragement. If they are encouraged and not spied upon and mistrusted, praised and not censured, they will cheerfully work both harder and longer and the cash register will show much larger returns for work done and sales made. Such workmen rarely go on strike. Instead, not nervously wrought up from fear, they go home at the end of the day with pr[illegible] in the heart and a song upon the lips.

A BRIEF BUT IMPORTANT meeting of the congregation will be held immediately following the morning service on June 13. The purpose is to act on the recommendations of the Church Council and Building Committee concerning the redecoration of the Church nave and chancel.

THE LADIES' SOCIETY will meet tomorrow evening, Monday, June 7. This is the last meeting before summer vacation. Will you not help make it one of the best? Rev. Augustus Hackmann will play several selections on the violin and there will be other interesting features on the program. We hope to have final reports of the Supper, and there are business matters of great importance to all members to be considered.

CHILDREN'S DAY will be observed on next Sunday. The entire Bible School will assemble in the Fellowship Hall for a special service at 9:45 A.M. The Junior Choir will also participate in the eleven o'clock service in the Church.

FATHER'S DAY comes on June 20 this year. We always remember Mother's Day but sometimes we pass Father's Day with scant reference. Its observance has never become so popular as Mother's Day. This year we are going to give Father his full dues. We want to hang a few laurels around his neck and also bring to him some of the counsel of the Lord. Honor your Father by attending services on June 20. Be sure to bring him along.

THE COUNTY FAIR will be held on June 18 and 19 at the home of Mr. Andrew L. Johnson, 6221 Greenspring Avenue, under the auspices of the Luther League. Many will recall very happy experiences at last year's Fair and anticipate the pleasure of attending another. It is most gracious of the Johnson families to open their home and spacious lawns for such purposes. It involves much inconvenience and labor on their part but they enjoy helping a worthy cause. We shall be doing little in comparison by attending and giving our support. Donations of candy, country store products, flowers, novelties, etc. are now being received at the Church Office or at the Johnson Home.

OUR CHOIRS are planning an evening of secular music, Wednesday, June 23, at 8:15 P.M. The purpose of this program is to give the groups the joy of singing secular music and establish a precedent that will develop into an artistic concert program as the years go by; and also make possible the raising of funds for Choir expenses incurred during the year. A silver offering will be taken, half of which will go toward the Choir Fund and the other half toward the Building Fund.

It is planned to have this program earlier in the season another year in order to avoid the heat but the Choirs are working hard to make this program interesting and feel sure members of Christ Church will support their efforts. This first year gives promise of a successful musical program in the future.

THE SUMMER SCHOOL of the Maryland Synod will again be held at Hood College, Frederick, Md. This is a school for young people and church workers of all kinds. Instruction will be given in the Bible and almost every phase of Church work. The school opens on July 18 and closes July 25. The total cost for registration, lodging and meals is only $14.00. Do you know of any place where you can enjoy not only a pleasant vacation but a week with so many privileges for so small a sum? If interested, inquire at the Church Office.

THE SEED

A wonderful thing is a seed,
The one thing deathless forever;
Forever old and forever new,
Forever faithful and utterly true,
Fickle and faithless never.

Plant lilies, and lilies will bloom;
Plant roses, and roses will grow;
Plant hate, and hate to life will spring;
Plant love, and love to you will bring
The fruit of the seed you sow.—Selected.

"WHY I GO TO CHURCH"

First, let me say that I am not interested in any Church or other institution just to keep it alive. Unless it performs a real service, it—like the famous fig tree—should die. There are so many good ways to use our time—and of time we have but a very limited amount—that we can do only a fraction of what we would like to do. Furthermore, I do not attend Church primarily to be entertained or even "inspired." An eloquent preacher, an enticing choir, or a beautiful auditorium are all to the good; but they are not essential to life.

I perhaps go to Church for selfish reasons. I enjoy my Church as I enjoy my daily walk. I never listened to any priest or preacher from whom I could not learn something. I even enjoy a plain service of worship from my Prayer Book without any sermon. But to get good from Church going one must make it a habit. It is the systematic daily walks that do good—not the occasional walk. Church going is like advertising in one way. We must keep constantly and incessantly at it to make it pay! Then we can be guaranteed good dividends. In fact, were I a preacher, I would offer to refund in full the annual subscription to the Church of anyone who, after attending 75 per cent. of the Sundays, feels that he has not got his money's worth.

There is another reason why I go to some Church service every Sunday. This is to encourage my children and grandchildren to acquire the habit of Church going. We oldsters may check out before real trouble comes to our nation. But let me tell you that the younger generation will need to have something more permanent than real estate, bank accounts, insurance, or even democracy. Unless they have a sane spiritual foundation, they are licked. We can do for them far more by setting them an example of Church going than by bequeathing them land, securities, or any other property. Moreover, I am just talking hard-boiled common sense.

Finally, I feel that it should lengthen your life to attend some Church service regularly! When I say this, my business friends laugh at me; while my ministerial friends call me worldly minded for "giving a material reason why people should acquire the Church-going-habit." However, from many years' study of Church attendance statistics, I am convinced that this habit tends to prolong the lives of regular Churchgoers. But do not take my word for it. Study the experience tables of your own denomination.

—Roger W. Babson.

TUNING UP

Life is like an orchestra, in that it needs tuning up before every performance. That is why each day should be begun with prayer and Bible reading. If there be time to dip into a great book, the spirit is the stronger for whatever lies ahead.

Some days are a succession of hangles and discordancies because they were not begun aright. Once a person's spirit is steadied and exalted by the consciousness that he is God's child, in God's care, with God's will for guide, it moves serenely through the hours, kept by the consciousness of harmony with the great spirit.

"Still, still with Thee, when purple morning breaketh,
When the bird waketh, and the shadows flee;
Fairer than morning, lovelier
than the daylight,
Dawns the sweet consciousness,
I am with Thee."

—William T. Ellis.

BALANCE AND PROPORTION

The strong wise man sees the world of balance. With fine proportion he discriminates, he chooses, he does not allow himself to be confused. He instantly lays his hand upon the real thing, the great thing in life. He sees duty in proportion and places the emphasis where it ought to be made. Such a man is not easily overthrown. What are the crises in the lives of other men are no crises in his own life. His nature is strong and well fortified, and what in another case would result in some profound tragedy leaves in his own heart peace and trust.

—George L. Perin.

NEWTON D. BAKER once remarked that the dinner-table conversation at home has a vast amount to do with the way the future generation will think. It is here that thinking habits are formed and become set for the balance of life.

Just as the food eaten builds bone and muscle, so the words spoken at the dinner table build mind and character.

Do those words create high ideals? Do they teach wholesome principles of living? Do they suggest service, kindness, loyalty, cheerfulness, courage, reverence? Do they radiate a spirit of comradeship and friendship? Do they build poise and faith?

Let us watch our dinner-table words. They become a part of the personalities of our children.

GRACE BEFORE MEALS
(For Children to learn and use)

Be present at our table, Lord,
Be here, as everywhere, adored,
Thy blessings give, and grant that we,
May always show our love for Thee.

We thank Thee, Lord, for this our food,
And all Thy gifts that are so good,
Help us grow stronger every day,
And walk with Thee, the Jesus' way.

I fold my hands, I bow my head
To thank dear Jesus for my bread,
He is so very kind to me,
That I'll be sweet, as sweet can be.

—W. T. H.

THE ACOLYTES for today are as follows: Morning, Donald Luette; Evening, Frederick Wall.

THE "IN SERVICE TRAINING" Program sponsored by our Bible School Association and intended for all Officers and Teachers will continue its program on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. The theme for this week is "Creative Activity In The Bible School." Mrs. George Glock, who is connected with the Children of the Church program, will be the leader again this week.

THE BALTIMORE DISTRICT LUTHER LEAGUE will conduct a Lenten Devotional Service, today, 3:30 P.M., at First Lutheran Church. All young people are invited.

DR. LEANDER M. ZIMMERMAN

At six o'clock last Monday morning, Pastor Deaton's telephone rang. It was the message which, though anticipated, was dreaded: "Dr. Zimmerman passed away at 5:20 A.M." We had visited him Thursday, Friday and Saturday and almost every week since his accident in July 1950, and were aware that the end was drawing near.

Our sense of loss is very great, but our hearts are also filled with gratitude. God gave us Dr. Zimmerman for a long, long time. Not many are privileged to sojourn on this earth for more than ninety-one years and still fewer fill their lives with such fruitful service for the Lord and Master and the children of men. Through Dr. Zimmerman's ministry, more than that of any other person, God has given us our beloved Church Home. Thousands have been drawn closer to God by his ministry through the spoken and written word. His zeal for the Kingdom was untiring and continued to the very end of his life. Books could be written about his life and ministry. We record these few words as "The Visitor" goes to the printer.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours." "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

OUR EASTER OFFERING will be used in part to help meet our obligation to Lutheran World Action for this year. This is the agency of the National Lutheran Council which is saving thousands of lives from starvation in Europe and other parts of the world and helping to take care of the missions orphaned by the war. We have given generously to this cause in the past few years, but the need is still urgent. The quota assigned to our congregation is $2,374.

Practice self-denial in Lent to increase your Easter Offering.

MERCY . . . WITHOUT STRINGS

A long time ago there was a very wise poet. Over and over again his golden verses struck deep into the hearts of men. Many of the things he said have become part of our everyday thought and speech.

The wonderful thing about this poet was that he wrote straight to our human emotions. He understood that life rushes on pell-mell and is too full of noise and excitement for everyone to sit around being philosophical. He wrote so that everyone could feel the truth in his words—and then enjoy that truth.

One of the wisest and sweetest things this poet ever said is: "The quality of mercy is not strained. It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven upon the place beneath. It is twice blest—it blesseth him that gives and him that takes . . . "

With these words, William Shakespeare has reminded generations of busy people that sympathy and compassion are conditions of the heart. Where they exist, they flow on and on simply because they must—like a river. And like a river, they both give and take—there is a reward for him who gives as well as him who takes.

Now, when the 1952 appeal for Lutheran World Action is getting into full stride, it is good for us to remember that mercy does not depend on things like reward and nearness.

Sometimes we are more willing to share with people we know intimately than those who live in other lands. When needs arise beyond our national boundaries we begin to measure our giving with questions: How do I know they'll appreciate my help? Why did they let themselves get into such a fix? How do I know there won't be greater need at home?

But mercy isn't conditioned. It is love's answer to distress. It reaches out to help simply because there are such things as hunger, anguish, and cold.

The $2,900,000 World Action goal this year will be used for resettling the homeless; for struggling young churches and those oppressed by communism; for missions and missionaries whose support has been cut off; for spiritual ministry to those in our armed forces; for distributing food and clothing . . .

Shakespeare never heard of Lutheran World Action. But he knew that sometimes we would have to say to ourselves: "Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful."

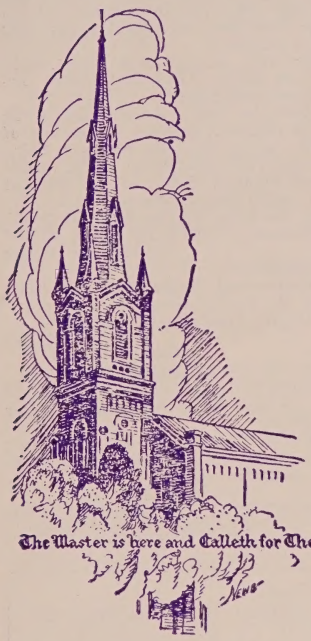
MARCH 23, 1952 VOLUME 27, NUMBER 30



God Calling Yet!

God calling yet! shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
Shall life's swift passing years all fly.
And still my soul in slumbers lie?

God calling yet! shall I not rise?
Can I His loving voice despise,
And basely His kind care repay?
He calls me still; can I delay?

God calling yet! and shall He knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare His Spirit grieve?

Ah, yield Him all; in Him confide;
Where but with Him doth peace abide?
Break loose, let earthly bonds be riven,
And let the spirit rise to heaven!

Saviour, Thy children keep, the day is dying, and guard us while we sleep, on Thee relying. The glad light of day dies in golden glory: Close Thou our wearied eyes from life's sad story.

Blest be Thy holy name for calm at even. O may we rest on Thee! Our sins forgiven. Thou art our Hope and Shield! Our joy in sadness. Faith hath Thy love revealed through this day's gladness.

The day is past and gone, night gathers slowly; Thou ever blessed One now keep us holy!

Calm be our rest tonight while earth reposes: Be ours the realms of light, when this life closes! Shine through the gloom of night, while earth reposes: Calm be our rest, at last, when this life closes!

WHAT A TRIBUTE! More than four thousand persons from all walks of life and representing many religions came to view the body of Dr. Zimmerman. The fact that he should be so well remembered twenty-seven years after he retired and no longer lived in our community is truly remarkable. Almost 1,500 persons, including Governor and Mrs. McKeldin, many pastors, seven of our ten ministerial sons and many deaconesses attended the Service in our Church. Dr. Rasmussen, who was present as a representative of the Gettysburg Seminary and a long time friend of Dr. Zimmerman said, "It was the most impressive funeral service I ever attended." Dr. Zimmerman deserved all that we could do for him and more.

OUR SINCERE GRATITUDE is expressed to all who assisted so generously and unselfishly at the time of Dr. Zimmerman's funeral. In the absence of any near relatives and also by request of Dr. Zimmerman, all details were in our hands. We followed very closely the plan which he had made for this eventuality. The assistance given by the Church Council, the Choir, the Mortician, and many others was invaluable and deeply appreciated.

The following persons have memorialized Dr. Zimmerman with contributions to the Greater Christ Church Fund:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blanch,
Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Congleton,
Mr. John A. Danzeglock, Jr.,
Mrs. Catherine Fay,
Mrs. Amelia Foy,
Mr. and Mrs. William R. Gischel,
Mr. J. Norman Henkel,
Mrs. Kathryn Johnson,
Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kaiss,
Mrs. Charles Katz,
Mrs. Ethel Mangum,
Mrs. Lillie Neesemann,
Mr. and Mrs. Julius Otto and Family,
Mr. and Mrs. John B. Talbott and
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler.

We are grateful to you. Nothing would please Dr. Zimmerman more than to know that he was remembered in this way. All gifts of this nature will be applied to a special memorial.

THE "IN SERVICE TRAINING" Program will continue Wednesday, 7 P.M. The topic of discussion will be "The Use Of Dramatics In The Bible School." Mrs. Isabelle Berger of the Children's Experimental Theatre is the guest speaker.

OUR EASTER OFFERING is significant for what it means to our Church in meeting its benevolence obligations. It is even more significant to you as an evidence of your appreciation of the redeeming love of God in Christ Jesus. Dr. Zimmerman always gave $100. to this offering. Won't you increase yours a bit to compensate for this loss and honor the memory of one who meant much to us?

AMONG THOSE PRESENT at Dr. Zimmerman's funeral service was Miss Alice Spangler, the nurse who ministered to him so faithfully and helpfully in the last fifteen months of his earthly life. She was a guest in the Home when Dr. Zimmerman arrived. Even though she was advanced in years and had a physical infirmity, she answered the call for assistance by putting on again her uniform and coming to the aid of Dr. Zimmerman. With the exception of relief for a couple of days a week for a few months, she was with him every day and often far into the night. How she had the strength to continue was a mystery we could not understand. Her explanation was no doubt the correct one, "God gave me the strength. He sent me to the Home for this purpose." No patient ever had a more capable or devoted nurse. Only God and Dr. Zimmerman know how much her services meant. It was a service of Christian love and that makes it all the more appreciated. Truly, the funeral service would have been incomplete without Miss Spangler in attendance.

MAYOR D'ALESANDRO'S telegram: "I was saddened to learn of the passing of one of Baltimore's revered religious leaders, The Reverend Doctor Leander M. Zimmerman, beloved by all who knew him. It has been given to few men to earn the regard and esteem of an entire city. It can truly be said of him that he was a man among men and an example of Christian piety and religious zeal that will insure his memory in the hearts of our people through the years to come. Kindly express my sincere sympathy to the bereaved family of Doctor Zimmerman."

EVERYONE A FISHER OF MEN

If you could make a wish which would surely come true, what would you wish for? Something for yourself such as a large amount of money? Or would you wish that today peace might come permanently to the world?

Perhaps you would make the greatest wish of all, which would include enduring peace, prosperity and all other good things. You might wish that everyone in the world would become a true Christian.

How splendid it would be if that were our greatest desire. Of course wishes don't get very far, except in fairy stories. But this is one we can help make come true.

Wherever we live, we have opportunities to be missionaries. We can help people take the first step toward being Christians. That is, we can encourage them to come with us to church, learn to worship God, hear the Christian message.

Bringing others to church is just the sort of thing Jesus told His followers to do. He never had any intention that only ministers should seek disciples for Him.

In the Lutheran Church during the past few years there has been marked progress among the members in personal evangelism—this work of being missionaries in our own community. In many congregations there are people who go out visiting in their own neighborhoods inviting people to church. People are speaking about their Lord to their fellow workers in stores, offices, factories.

This spirit of evangelism is not yet strong enough. Each of us must be so genuinely eager to win followers for Christ that we can overcome our natural hesitation and timidity.

There are great changes taking place in American life. People are moving around, no longer living all their lives and bringing up their children in one place. The churches have a harder task than ever before to gather children for religious training and hold adults in congregations. Every time a family moves from one home to another there is danger its members will slip away from Christian influences. This, in the long run, is the greatest danger in American life. We can meet it by increased efforts of every Christian to win others for Christ.

Dr. Zimmerman, Retired Baltimore Pastor, Dies

Dr. Leander M. Zimmerman, long one of Baltimore's most distinguished clergymen, poet, author of many religious books and for 37 years pastor of Christ Lutheran Church until his retirement in 1925, died today in Washington. He was 91.

Dr. Zimmerman, just out of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, came to Baltimore in 1887, when his church wished to establish a mission here; took over another church building at Charles and Hill streets, formed a congregation of 100 within a year, and steadily built it up to more than 1,000.

Held Only One Pastorate

The church was his only pastorate. Through the years he was increasingly busy in building it up, writing, and taking part in the affairs of his adopted city.

When he was honored at a dinner in recent years, an editorial said of him: "Nobody thought of South Baltimore without thinking of the Rev. Dr. Zimmerman. He was part of the local scene. Thousands of Baltimoreans who were not members of his church were awakened to nostalgic memories at mention of his name."

Youngest Of 12 Children

Dr. Zimmerman was born on a farm near Manchester, Md., August 29, 1960, a son of Henry and Leah Gladfelter Zimmerman. He was the youngest of a family of twelve, and the seventh son of a seventh son.

He was graduated from Gettysburg College in 1884 and from the seminary three years later.

In building up his pastorate here, he was constantly reaching out for nonchurchgoers, and made as many as 4,000 pastoral visits a year.

DR. L. M. ZIMMERMAN

Performed 4,541 Marriages

During his long pastorate Dr. Zimmerman performed 4,541 marriages and 4,817 baptisms. He was president of the Lutheran Synod of Maryland, a founder and president of the Lutheran Deaconness Mothrehouse of Baltimore, vice president of the Board of Home Missions and a member of the board of trustees of the theological seminary at Gettysburg.

RITES PLANNED FOR MINISTER

Funeral Of Dr. Zimmerman To Be Held Thursday Night

Funeral services for the Rev. Dr. Leander M. Zimmerman, founder and for 38 years pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, will be held at 8 P.M. Thursday at the church, Charles and Hill streets.

Dr. Zimmerman, who was also a poet and the author of many religious books, died yesterday at the Lutheran Home for the Aged, in Washington. He was 91.

Sent by the Lutheran Board of Missions to establish a mission in Baltimore, Dr. Zimmerman conducted his first service here on December 18, 1887, in the old Triumph Hall. He recalled later that 150 attended the morning, and 115 the evening, services.

Had 1,000 When He Retired

The church had 1,000 members when he retired, because of ill-health, in April, 1925. As pastor-emeritus he continued to occupy the pulpit from time to time and in 1949 preached the Thanksgiving day sermon for the sixty-second consecutive year.

Easter Sunday, 1950, was the last time he preached to the congregation he founded.

Dr. Zimmercan was born in Manchester, Md., in 1860, the son of Henry and Leah Zimmerman. He was the youngest of a family of seven boys and five girls, and was the seventh son of a seventh son.

The 1½-mile walk from the family's farm to school prepared him, he once said, for the walking he did along the streets of Baltimore when, as a young missionary, he sought to bring the church to the people.

Graduated From Gettysburg

Dr. Zimmerman graduated from Gettysburg College in 1884 and, three years later, was ordained after graduating from Gettysburg Theological Seminary. Immediately after ordination—October, 1887—he was sent to Baltimore.

He decided that he must visit "the unchurched and the non-church goers" and he determined not only to bring the best possible messages on Sunday from the pulpit but also to be "a house-to-house going pastor."

During his first year he made 4,000 visits. At the end of that year the congregation bought the old Sailor's Bethel Church building, one of the oldest Methodist churches in the city. The one-year mission was ended as the congregation declared itself self-supporting.

Building Still Used

The church building dedicated in 1888 is still used by the congregation. However, a parish hall, named the Leander M. Zimmerman Parish House, was completed in 1936.

Early in the 1900's, Dr. Zimmerman was made a member of the London Society of Science, Letters and Art and also was elected to membership in the Gettysburg College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

In 1900 he was elected president of the Maryland Synod. He was one of the founders and for many years president of the Lutheran Deaconess Motherhouse; vice president of the Board of Home Missions, and for more than twenty years a member of the board of trustees of Gettysburg Theological Seminary.

Dr. Zimmerman never married and none of his brothers or sisters survive.

Friends may call at the William Cook Funeral Home, St. Paul and Preston streets, from 1 P.M. today to 10 P.M. Wednesday. The body will lie in state at the church from 10 A.M. Thursday until the funeral.

Dr. Zimmerman's Long Ministry In South Baltimore

When a man outlives his contemporaries, he often is forgotten. Such was not the case with the Rev. Dr. Leander M. Zimmerman, whose death at the age of 91 years occurred yesterday in Washington. His long ministry at Christ Lutheran Church in South Baltimore already had endowed him with a sort of immortality.

Dr. Zimmerman came to Baltimore as a young pastor in 1887. For years he was distinguished by a heavy black beard which, he confessed later, he wore to make himself look older. For 38 years he was pastor of Christ Lutheran. Then in 1925 he retired on account of ill-health and went to live in Washington.

But he was not lost to the church or to the community. He returned periodically to preach on such festivals as Thanksgiving Day. Sometimes he was the guest at testimonial dinners. This was not surprising, for even among members of the cloth there must have been few individuals in the city who had intimate contacts with so many people. In the course of his long ministry, it has been estimated that nearly 5,000 infants were baptized by him. Nearly 8,000 men and women were joined in the bonds of matrimony by him. It was his lot also to conduct the funeral services over more than 2,000 persons.

Through his kindly nature and his consideration, he extended his influence far beyond the limits of his parish. Not the least of his contributions to the community was the example he gave it of a Christian life.

Two Maryland clergymen who have spent over 50 years each in the local Lutheran ministry will participate in Easter services tomorrow. The Rev. Dr. L. M. Zimmerman, who founded Christ Lutheran Church more than half a century ago and who since then has served the congregation, first as its pastor and now as pastor emeritus, will collaborate at 11 A. M. with the Rev. Dr. John L. Deaton, present pastor. At St. Paul's Lutheran Church the Rev. William A. Holls, who recently retired after 50 years' service in Maryland churches, will assist the Rev. O. F. C. Weinbach, pastor, with the 11 A. M. celebration of the Holy Communion.

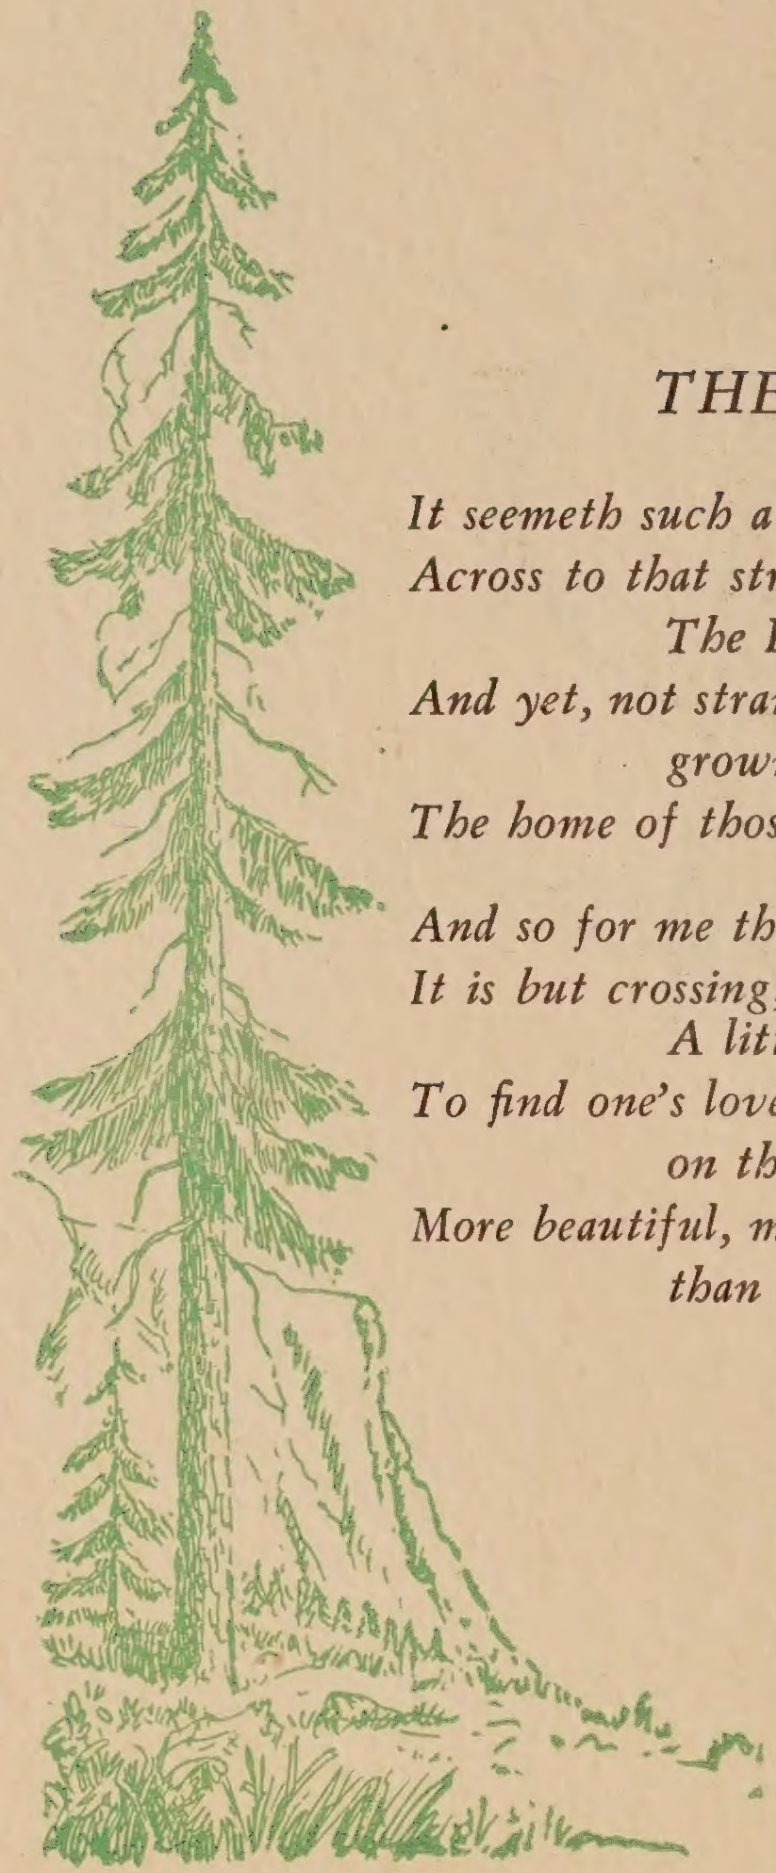
A Loving Memorial



THE BEYOND

It seemeth such a little way to me
Across to that strange country,
The Beyond;
And yet, not strange, for it has grown to be
The home of those of whom I am so fond.

And so for me there is no Death,
It is but crossing, with abated breath,
A little strip of sea,
To find one's loved ones waiting
on the shore,
More beautiful, more precious
than before.
